

Hunted

Acts 9:1-19

God can redeem the un-redeemable.

1. God is relentless in His pursuit of us. (Acts 9:1-9)
 - a. Paul attempted to stop the unstoppable work of God.
 - b. The hunter became the hunted.
2. God equips His people to do His work. (Acts 9:10-19)
 - a. Blind obedience is not optional for God's servants.
 - b. It is His work; we are invited to join in.
 - c. The hunted ministered to the hunter.

Application

“His compulsion is our liberation.” C.S. Lewis

- What does your personal “Damascus Road” look like? Have you ever been completely dependent upon the Lord?
- What does obedience to God look like in your life today?
- Have you written anyone off as being beyond the love of Christ? What does that say about your understanding of God's grace?
