Acts 9:43-10:23

Anything less than obedience to God is rebellion.

1. Obedience is not optional. (Acts 9:43-10:8)

- a. Those who sincerely pursue God are pursued by God.
- b. Sometimes obedience means standing alone.
- c. God not only sees us as we are but as we will become.

2. Obedience often requires letting go of something. (Acts 10:9-23)

- a. God does not mind us getting out of our comfort zone.
- b. We do not get to be “picky” about which of God’s teachings we do and do not honor.
- c. Sometimes we need to accept what we initially thought was unacceptable.

Application:

- What is God teaching you about Himself or about yourself?
- What would it look like for you to get out of your comfort zone?
- What is God asking you to do for Him today?
